Note on the subject of Orphans

Any position that has not been assigned a standby player is now in anarchy. I'm sorry that you remaining original players ordered blind with respect to the countries to be taken by the standbys but I thought you would prefer to get going again as soon as possible. Certainly only one person has commented about this and not too strongly at that.

Nearly the End

The Deadline below is nominal- I do not know when I'm going to start the 'zine as I do not know when my oral is to be, though my last written paper is 1st June. Tremendous piss-up thereafter! If the oral delays me too long then the 'zine will be delayed by my packing and moving out of here to destination X at the end of term. I don't know if X is somewhere here or back down in Somerset, though I'm hoping it will be here for a while. As usual 'more next time'.

DEADLINE Friday June 2nd
